About LUXUSEDGE-Chef Francesco Colloca:

I discovered from an early age that my passion was cooking and the smiles I saw in people after eating my food neutered me with joy. It came clear to me that I would wrap my life around the hospitality industry. After my Studies in New York I moved to Miami to work for wonderful chains of hotels such as: The Delano Hotel, The Fairmont Hotel Group and The Ritz Carlton Hotel. Opportunity brought me to travel around the world, learning different techniques of cooking as well as cultures and languages.

As an Entrepreneur, I opened »Lounge Out« in Miami Beach, a Food and Beverage Consulting company. We collaborated successfully with Bacardi Group, Nikki Beach Club, among others. Now my team and I are based in Mallorca with our newest business concept LUXUSEDGE.

I believe luxury is in our hands, in our soul and in our ability to transform everyday experiences into positive emotions.
